MANDI LOO BIERMANN

Mandi Loo Biermann, 46, of Little Meadows, PA entered into rest on January 23, 2024. She is survived by her parents, Clifford and Victoria Sodan; her precious daughters, Brittani Biermann and Hallie Biermann; four grandchildren, Trinity Wheeler, William Reed, Hazel Reed, and Stormie Reed; fiancé, Michael Lupold; her siblings, Misty (Ken) Udeze, Michael (Lillian) Sodan, and Toni (Josh) Lewis; several nieces and nephews; and the father of her children, Jereme Biermann and his entire family. She was predeceased by her brother, William J. Sodan; her maternal grandparents, William and Mary Bomysoad; paternal grandparents, Louis and Barbara Sodan.

Mandi started working at 16 years old for Subway. Her former manager, Niki Maus Hess, left a lasting impact on her entire life, making them long time close friends. Mandi became the General Manager for Subway and was moved to several stores during her career. She was a hard worker and also filled in at many stores as she was needed. Upon graduation from high school, Mandi enlisted with the United States Army Reserves and completed her contract.

Mandi left a lasting impression on the lives of those she came into contact with from customers, family members, and friends. Her facial expressions were priceless and she would do anything and everything to see others smile. Mandi strived to bring joy into the lives of others and brighten a portion of their day.

Mandi lived for her daughters and grandchildren and she looked forward to spending as much time as possible with them.

A memorial service will be held at 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, January 31, 2024 at the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA. Friends may call from 4-7 p.m. prior to the service. Should friends so desire, memorial contributions may be made to the funeral home to assist with her final expenses.

“ There are people who are good people and there are people who are nice people. Mandi is someone who both good and nice. Kind and gentle. Sincere and genuine, and always empathetic and understanding. God put the best parts of humanity into Mandi. Her smile, her spirit, her nature. Her heart was too big for this world. She is the kind of person that only comes once in a life time. To have met her, to be her friend, to receive her light and love is a blessing. Finding a new normal where Mandi isn't in my day to day life is going to be one of the hardest things I've ever had to do. There are things that last beyond life and death and one of those things is love. Until the day after forever comes and goes, I will love this woman with my entire heart. I hope everyone will think of Mandi, years down the line. I hope everyone will remember the little brunette with the big smile and the even bigger heart. I hope she can live peacefully within the memories of everyone who knew and loved her. Mandi, you did well. I hope you know that.

“ Mandi❤️

You were a force! Your smile could make any situation better and you just had the most loving, genuine, giant, personality. You made anyone that you talked to feel like they were the most important person in the world. You really were one of a kind! So many memories have been surfacing this week, some i cannot share but others that i hold so dear...laughing until we cried, crying until we laughed (you could always make me laugh when I was crying), long walks to nowhere to talk about nothing and everything, dancing and singing (more like screaming) songs until we had no voice left, baking in the sun until our skin broke, basketball at the park, 11:11 wishes, making mens boxer shorts a staple in our everyday fashion, Zumba, wall sit competitions that we both refused to lose, so many little things that added up to one of the very best friendships that i have ever had. The world is going to miss you, my sweet, beautiful friend! spread those wings baby girl, I know I'll see you again! ❤️💔
