

Marjorie Lynn Henry

November 23, 1965 - May 27, 2024

Marjorie Lynn Henry, 58, of Hallstead, PA passed away Monday, May 27, 2024. She was predeceased by her mother Carol Henry.

Marjorie is survived by her daughters Liliana and Tracy, father Wilfred, siblings Laura, Dawn (Lee), Tom (Maryann), Susan, Joanne, and Dan, and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. She is also survived by a few special friends Jim and Marcia Perkins, Patty and Rich Seaburg, and Cheryl and Dave Coleman.

Marjorie was a Renaissance woman, clever and industrious, an artisan at heart. There was always a project on her plate, from growing flowers for sale to tending her beehives, and she considered every detail.

The family will have a private service at their convenience. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Guthrie's Annual Butterfly Release and Memorial Service (make donations at www.Guthrie.org/butterfly), or you can plant a tree in her honor.

“Marjorie's untimely passing is such a great loss to the world, to her family, and her friends. Your description of her as a Renaissance woman is so apt - I don't believe there was anything that did not capture her interest and no skill or craft that she was unable to tackle and master. From woodworking (!) to flower growing and arranging, to baking and entertaining, to decorating and to beekeeping, she took it on with gusto. She was truly a marvel. (And behind all of this creativity was an accountant!)

I was also always taken by her quick wit, ready laugh, and irreverent humor. She was such a fun "date" to the Annapolis Film Festival.

I have fond memories of elaborate dinners at her house, each carefully put together with every last detail prepared to perfection. The one that will forever set the standard is the Chinese New Year's themed dinner, complete with customized horoscopes and Chinese blossom teas to bring home.

Her greatest legacy, of course, is her children, and although her time with them was cut short, she has done her job well. Lily and Tracy, you will carry your mom and her example and wisdom with you in big ways and small... and you will be the better for it. May you find comfort not only in the memories of your mom, but in how she has prepared you to live a meaningful and joyful life, even as it now must be without her.

With great sadness and sympathy,

Phyllis

“ Brilliant, bold, fun loving, hard working, and curious about everything around you. You brought an exceptionalism to your interests—from bees to gardening to politics to education activism. Your mind was always swirling with new things you had learned. And your courage over these last few months was nothing short of amazing. I will greatly miss our table talks, my friend.
