“ I am so sorry for the loss of your mom, grandmother, and friend to so many. I was fortunate enough to know her for numerous years while residing on Bartholdi Ave. in Jersey City as a child. Growing up with David. Mrs. S was a very kind woman and always welcomed me into their home. Although it was tough with her puppy BABY always wanting to rip me a new one when entering, lmao. Mary shared her son David with me and the neighborhood kids with their pool and home. Mary's family, Joanne/Butch their children Frankie and Jason. Joanne doing ceramics in the basement with us dripping wax on bottles to make candles for our moms and so much more. Thank you. Frannie/Carl or Chuck ? sorry been a long time, would welcome us to share in their adventures going to the mall or going South of the Border. LOLOL. I still remember Moms face when we got back from the long trip south, the Okie Finokey Swamp, Carlsbad Cavern, yadda yadda. She was happy we were home but would never show it. I saw it. She was stern but very loving and spoiled David rotten! lol. That said, I thank you all for what you gave to me as a kid and sharing your family with me and the kids on the block, but if not for mom it would have never happened. Thank you, Mrs. Skowronski, for sharing what you loved with me, your family. Rest in Peace. God Bless You. Rick Branagan
