“ I remember how much Mike loved his motorcycle. One day he come to the house where Dave & I lived in Chenango Bridge & he had taken the baffles out of the muffler and hit the gas and shot flames at least six feet out of that exhaust. I had never seen anything like it before. He was a regular at our home and now he is in heaven with my late husband, Dave. He is also joining his beloved children Ashlynn & Mikey Jr. You will be missed Mike.
