“ Pat was my cousin by marriage...She married my cousin Frank..After they were married they came to Oneonta to tell us and we all went to a high school basketball game...I was 12 years old...I liked Pat right away even though I had asked Frank to wait for me to grow up..lol.. I spent several weeks every summer with them in their big white house on Main Street in New Milford..We would walk with Laurie in her carriage to The Parkview for a soda...I thought her brother JP was the best thing in PA and she got him to take me to a drive in movie.. I was only about 15....Their son's middle name is Clayton after my dad..I could go on and on... RIP Pat
