“ When you find a friend and relative like Priscilla, you have found a true treasure indeed. I have met many people throughout my life, but it's rare to find someone that has such a positive outlook on life and a sense of dedication to Her spiritual walk. Many times throughout the years she sent me hand written letters to encourage me along the way. These letters were so meaningful to me. And I appreciated them all. To my uncle Bill, I know that you're sad today. But keep in mind that she loved you I know that you loved her and your sense of humor has been such a blessing to me throughout the years. To David and Lynette, how I wish I could spend more time with you, and Particularly celebrate and be with you on the day of your mother's homecoming. But there is no question anyone's mind as to where she is today.

“ My Aunt Pricilla, always a true friend to me...leading me with one hand while holding onto God's hand with the other. I will truly miss her soul, even though I know she is in the Heaven she has lived her whole life preparing for. Too many miles have separated us, and yet she was faithful to keep in touch...it was so good to hear her stories of youth, as well as her love and pride of her family. No greater woman has graced our presence...no better love will fill our hearts, her smile will always be our memories.

“ I met Mrs. Richner when I went to church with Marian Canfield. She convinced me to sing in the youth choir with Marian, David and a few others. I still don't sing.. she was an angel who taught me to find sunshine during a very dark time in my life.

I have been looking for her for about 25 years so I could send a letter to let her know how much she helped me and until I saw this notice, it was like she disappeared. I just want the Richner family to know that I appreciate all you did for me. Your family, to the 15 year old girl whom you allowed to be a small part of your life for a short time, was the hope that was needed to keep me alive. I don't know if you remember me, my name was Mary Gummoe. Me. Richner taught me how to see the beauty in flowers, while Mes. Richner showed me how to see the beauty in myself. Lynette, Marian and David showed me how that it was okay to have fun. Thank you for everything!

“ Rest well Priscilla. Priscilla will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. I first met Priscilla as a young girl when I would visit her flower shop. Later in life I Priscilla would always stop by and bring cookies to our house during the holiday season. She was always sweet and kind, especially to my children who thought very highly of her. We're all grateful to have had Priscilla in our lives. May she rest in peace.

“ Priscilla was a wonderful soul and a true disciple of our Lord and Savior. She was, without question, not only a dear friend but more so an even more dearer neighborhood grandmother who showed love, charity, and compassion to all who knew her. She will be missed but at least she will continue living on in the hearts of those who loved her like myself. Until we meet again here's lots of love to you.
