RACHEL MONTGOMERY UPRIGHT

Rachel Montgomery Upright, age 15, passed away on June 22, 2019 due to a tragic motor vehicle accident in New Jersey. She was born on December 17, 2003.

Since the moment Rachel was born, she was special. She made everyone's lives a little brighter. At 15, she was the most beautiful girl you would ever be lucky enough to meet-inside and out. Her heart was so full of love, a heart that knew no bounds.

Rachel was always trying to figure out ways to make other girls love themselves. She was constantly sharing and spreading happiness. Rachel touched each and every person she met in some special way. She put everyone before herself and she always made sure to let others know how loved they are. She was the only girl we knew who had to contour and highlight before shoveling snow or prior to doing anything for that matter. Rachel loved music of all forms and she had a voice of pure gold and passion. Rachel was an angel walking among us. She was the light in any dark situation, and only ever lifted people higher. Rachel is the most selfless, beautiful soul we've ever known. No energy could match hers and her impact will always be cherished along with the memories we got to create with her. Rachel is survived by her father and step mother, Larry and Jessica Upright; her grandmother "mom" Sherry Upright; her brothers, Lawrence "LJ" and Cayden; sisters, Sophia "Chunka," Sarah, Megan, and Lilly; her aunt Michele

Upright “Auntie”; aunt Daniele Upright; and cousins that were so much more like siblings, Paeton, Malaki, and Izaiah; and several other aunts, uncles, cousins, and grandparents.

The Bridgewater Church, Hallstead Campus, 722 New York Avenue, will host calling hours from 1-5 p.m., Monday July 1, 2019. The family will have a short break and prepare for the service at 6:30 which all of Rachel’s friends, teachers, and those who wish to attend are welcome to be with the family. The family wishes for everyone who attends to dress how Rachel would ordinarily see you. Memorial contributions may be given at her gofundme page for Rachel Upright. Arrangements are under the direction of the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA.
