“ I thank the Lord that He allowed me to meet Mr. Jennings, as I called him, and to become a friend of his. He was one of the first persons at Hallstead Baptist that made me feel welcome. He would call me "the lady in the choir." He sat behind me in church on Sunday mornings and many times I helped him get his winter coat on and some times I thought I would put his arm out of joint trying to get it in the proper sleeve! I also visited him at Gracious Living before we were not allowed to visit any more. I remember two of the statements he would say each time..."You made my day" and "I know I am going to go to be with Jesus one day...He is my Savior and Lord." I miss his smile..I loved to hear him sing on Sundays and I know now that he is singing the Lord's praises in the best choir ever. Praise the Lord...Leah Rausch

“ I rejoice in the assurance that Ray is now safe and well with our Lord. His fellowship will be missed by all of us. Ray was never too good to tackle any task that was asked of him, and without complaint. He would give his best.
