“ Dick was a kind and gentle soul and I loved "bumping" into him in the last few years. Our Sian could have had no better or caring persons to watch her than Dick and Marge and their family. We shared a time in our lives that is precious to me as I know he was just as special to each of you. Sian had a swim meet on Saturday, I'm sorry we couldn't join you in celebration of his wonderful life. God Bless. Bonnie Emerson
