“ Bobby and I were at our niece, Heather’s wedding. I asked him to dance with me not knowing he was a practiced dancer. While we were dancing, he asked me if he could lead 😓. I have always been one to lead and Bobby realized this, always the gentleman. Turned out he was a much better dancer than I. We always enjoyed each other’s company. He will be so missed. I wish him peace and love on his journey. 😭
Love and memories, Catherine

My brother Bobby always said kind of off the wall comments and did funny things by accident which brought Joy to all of us and humor and to share an example. We brought him to our son’s football game when he was 14 years old and my mother and I was sitting in the bleachers and we were like wasn’t Bobby just behind us? Where did he go? He went to get something at the stand to eat and then couldn’t remember where we were so he walked behind the cheerleaders who was in front of the bleachers doing. Cheers and he started staring at the bleachers to find us and it look like he was staring at the back of the cheerleaders and we could not stop cracking up laughing. We were on the bleachers raising our hand saying Bobby, we’re here. We’re over here so he would get away from behind the cheerleaders because it didn’t look good 🤔 that is the kind of funny humor he always brought to our lives 😊 Bobby will be greatly missed by all of us and life will be a little more boring without him
