“ Bob, I will always remember you as a kind and gentle soul always giving unconditionally. I will be eternally grateful for the stability that you brought into my childhood and I hope to embody more of your character traits of selflessness and an inner peace that you don't often see in people.

I am grateful to have witnessed your unlimited love for Jen even before she was brought into this world. The joy and excitement of her impending arrival was infectious. I will always remember my excitement as I looked around the hospital nursery to meet my new baby sister. I got to play and put affection onto her in her early years.

She has been a true blessing in my life and I am always amazed how similar we are in nature and character. Her heart, soul and passionate mission to help those who are vulnerable and disadvantaged is something to be noted. She has already helped so many and I have no doubt she will reach many more in the future. Her fire 🔥 and heart ❤️ will no doubt live through her two daughters Emma and Caitlin. I will always think of you when enjoying your family pancake recipe. Again thank you for your kindness and support. I will pay it forward.

Rest Peacefully ☮️ Laurie
