RUTH LAWRENCE

Ruth Lawrence, 101, of New Milford, PA passed away on January 6, 2015. She was predeceased by her husband of more than fifty years, Landon E. Lawrence, a step son, Donald Watts Lawrence, and a brother, John T. Fernald.

She will be missed by all who knew her, and most especially her nephews and daughter, Evelyn Lawrence.

Ruth graduated from Morrisville College and became a Singer Sewing Teacher until she married in 1948. She stepped into the fulltime job of parenting, farm chores, homemaking, and eventually care giving for her father-in-law, her mother, her brother, and her husband. She was a devoted step mother, aunt, and hostess to family gatherings. Ruth thought nothing of her husband bringing visitors for a meal without notice. Her cookie jar was always full. She sewed for family members as long as she was able.

Ruth was active in community activities both in town and on Franklin Hill. She was a member of the Grange, extension services of the county women's homemaking and church.

The family is especially grateful to her niece, Debbie Gardner for all the support and care she gave, dropping everything at a moment's notice.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, January 10, 2015 at the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA. Friends may call from 10-11 a.m., prior to the service. If desired, memorial contributions may be made to the First United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 436, New Milford, PA 18834 or to the New Milford Ambulance, P.O. Box 599, New Milford, PA 18834.

“ All my memories of Ruth are some of the happiest of my life, she was always there to help and guide me through the formative years of my life, much of what I am today I owe to Ruth and Landon, I literally think of them every day of my life. My condolences to all.
