Scott, Adele, Ryan and family, I can't say enough how sad I am of Sandy's passing. The diseases took her from us way too soon. She always had a big heart and was there for me if I needed. Even this Christmas she continued to play the part of our inside joke of Spam Fairy and delivered goodies to me. My heart breaks for the years we lost with her. She can be in peace now. She will continue to always be on my mind. Love to you all!

*Our thoughts & prayers are surely with you!! May God bless & sustain you & grant to you peace,courage,grace,love,hope,serenity,strength & a strong faith. One "Glorious Day" in God's timing we shall all join on that "Golden Shore" where Sandra has gone to be with the precious angels & to have a great "Reunion" in Heaven with her Daddy & other loved one's gone before her!! What a "Great Reunion"!! Sandra stayed strong thru all her trials & tribulations of Cancer until God called her "Home" & she will be greatly missed by all!! Matthew 10:30 says that every hair on our heads are numbered & Ecclesiastes 3 says that there is a time & a place & a reason & a season for everything & God is in control.When God calls we must go & that timing is with the Lord our Savior!! Sandra will forever be her loved one's "Guardian Angel" watching overf them!!
God bless,comfort & cherish you with all your precious memories to hold near & dear to your hearts!! Sending our love & Prayers!! Lots of love!!*

Scott, Ryan, and Adele - We are so so sorry for the loss of beautiful and sweet Sandy. We so enjoyed every interaction we had with her. She gave so much for so many years to the YPO group. She coordinated every event with ease, joy and passion. We know she is at peace after her many years of illness. Holding you all close in our thoughts and prayers. Love, the Villanti family
