“ Sincere condolences for your loss. Cherish loving memories of laughter and times spent together that are now something to be treasured. Proverbs 17:22 says "a joyful heart is good medicine", therefore, may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. May you receive needed empathy, comfort and support from family and friends now, and as long as it is needed. Another source of comfort is our loving Heavenly Father. He is available any time day or night, and is only a prayer away. Psalm 65:2 call God the "Hearer of prayer", and Psalm 145:18 says God "is near to all those calling on him". God has also promised at Revelation 21:4 that soon death will be no more, and Acts 24:15 holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. May Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. (tallchea@att.net)

“ There are too many to select just one, but as a younger brother and snotty nosed wise butt kid usually needing a kick, but occasionally a hug, she was always there to give it.

She was small in stature but a giant in knowledge and support when needed most for life's many trials and tribulations. She was always your biggest fan and supporter with whatever you wanted to do in life.

Sandy will truly be missed forever by her entire family and many friends who knew her as a generous, loving, kind and supporting person. She was a rock in our family.
