“ Aunt Shirley. Believed in me when no one else did she trusted me with her children i watched over them when she was working at the shoe factory. I spent two summers working for her takin care of Melvin Kevin and Brian i loved her and them like they where family and they ended up being part of my family....she loved me as a daughter that she didnt have at the time. And i loved her like mother ... She was a big part of my life... I have so many memory's of her being upset with me cause i took the boys to the pool and didnt get them home in time for dinner cause they didnt want to get out of the pool....
