

Susan M. Pavelski

September 25, 1960 - December 10, 2025

Susan M. Pavelski, 65, of Jackson Township, PA found the peace and comfort she's always deserved when she went to rest above the clouds on December 10, 2025 with her loving family and best buddy Chico (chihuahua) embracing her.

Sue is survived by her husband of forty years, Robert; by her children, Casey Webster, Brittany (Jacob) Ladd, and Corey Pavelski; her mother and life long best friend, Marion LaBarre; three grandchildren, Brock Webster, Grant Webster, and Bree Ladd; and her companion dog Chico. She was predeceased by her father, LaValle LaBarre.

Sue was known affectionately by many names: Susan, Susie, Sue, Mom, Ma, Grammy, and most infamously: Yum-Yum. Sue grew up on the family farm and spent countless hours in the barn with her father, uncles, and cousins. Her horses led her to find the love of her life, Bob.

Sue was employed as a Paraprofessional with Blue Ridge School District for twenty years and was passionate about the students she worked with. She spent many hours thrifting with her mother for those in need, including her students. This is just a small example of the selfless person she was, always thinking of the needs of others. Sue loved making her home (as well as her children's homes) special with the beautiful stone walls that she built to display her passion and knowledge of flowers.

When she wasn't in her flower beds, you could find Sue meticulously crafting ornaments and unique glass art for hours on end.

Sue was devoted to raising her children and grandchildren, never missing a school activity or sporting event. Her grandchildren were the light of her life. Nothing made her happier than seeing Brock, Grant, and Bree; maybe Corey, sometimes. Sue always kept her sense of humor right to the end.

Throughout her fifteen month battle, Sue was perpetually surrounded by love and support from her family at her side. With her family's help, mainly her devoted husband, Bob, who never missed a single appointment, she was able to focus on the fight. For this reason, and because she always held children close to her heart, Sue's family would be honored to know she could help in some way to keep a family united and focused on the comfort and care of a child needing her parent's undivided love at this time.

Assisting a family in need, local to the Blue Ridge/Montrose community, is the most impactful way to accomplish this and honor Sue's memory and positivity that she kept throughout. In lieu of flowers, please consider memorial contributions to Duane and Janice Benedict c/o the Tuttle-Yeasley Funeral Home, Inc. P.O. Box 936, Hallstead, PA 18822. For more information on Farrah, please see the guestbook on this website.

We hope the Benedict family will feel the love and support from the community that Sue did when she needed it most. A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

“ I am so sorry. I worked with Sue when I was a substitute at Blue Ridge. She was always nice to be around and I enjoyed her company. She will be missed by many.

“ Susie was a premie baby and her family couldn't wait until she was able to come home from the hospital. I was her cousin, and I helped take care of her during her toddler years. She was rugged for her little size, and you didn't dare get into her Oreos! It was remarkable how she was able to train her kittens to ride in the bicycle basket. Later she confessed that she would tie their legs to the bottom of the basket. The kittens didn't mind as they would line up at the side of the bus stop waiting for her to get home and they would go for another bike ride very willingly. We spent many hours roaming the farmland and then a blink went by, and she was graduating high school. We didn't get to see much of each other in later years. She was always in my thoughts and heart. I'm so sorry she is no longer with us, but those earlier memories will never be forgotten. Rest in peace Susie.

With Love, your cousin Julia.

I worked with Sue at Blue Ridge, we solved the world's problems at the "round" table every morning while waiting for the students to arrive. Heard lots of stories, had lots of laughs. Rest in peace my friend.
