“ Sue was one of the most genuine, loving women I have ever known. She asked the hard questions, listened to your answer, and never stopped loving you. Many a baby, including my two sons, was wrapped in a quilt lovingly stitched by Sue. Will and Paul called them their "Ulco blankets." As she stitched she prayed for the recipients. She lovingly crocheted so many beautiful gifts as well. She taught so many children in Sunday School, pouring the love of Jesus on them. My life would not be what it is had she not loved on me all these years. My deepest sympathies to John and the family. I look forward to the day when we meet at Jesus' feet. Until then, well done good and faithful servant of our Lord Jesus.

“ Dear John and family. Sue was like a second mother to me. I knew she prayed daily for us and our family. She was such a prayer warrior for her family too who she loved unconditionally. Her biggest desire was to know that each and every one of you would know Jesus personally and meet her again in Heaven. God bless you all. With love and prayers. Chris and David Hall
