“ My friend Teddy, long was the road you traveled, I'm so glad to have shared over 30 years as companions, confidants, and fixers of all our girls problems, and trying to understand the problems of the world. It's been my great pleasure, and honor to have been there for all the good times, and the tough times as well. Rest well my friend, we will always miss you, but rejoice that your sufferings are over.
Well Done You!!
