

Thomas A. Wooster

November 23, 1955 - November 7, 2025

Thomas A. Wooster, 69, of Great Bend, PA, died unexpectedly of a heart attack on November 7, 2025. He was the son of the late Betty Van Loan Button and John Wooster. He was also predeceased by his brother, James Wooster; and a niece, Kalyn Morris. He is survived by three sisters and two brother-in-law's, Jeanne (Jeff) Armstrong, Janice (Richard) Decker, and Joanne Lambiase; two brothers, Daniel Wooster and John Wooster; an aunt, Rhonda Austin; many cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews; like a daughter and son-in-law Rebecca Turner-Baker (Ron); grandchildren, Hannah Turner-Baker and Christian Baker.

Thomas was a 1973 graduate of Blue Ridge High School. He was a Substitute Teacher and an Official Timer/Horse Race Timer. He loved to travel and throughout the years resided in California, Kentucky, and Georgia. He was infatuated with the stars and a huge Star Trek fan.

"We had joy, we had fun. We had seasons in the sun. But the hills that we climbed. Were just seasons out of time."

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Arrangements entrusted to the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA.

“ Tom got me to the hospital the day my son was born. Made sure I was taken care of until my husband got there. He always treated me like a daughter and my babies (now grown) were his grandkids. He was and forever will be their Gigi. And my honorary dad. He was kind and sassy. You always knew where you stood with him. He will be missed
