

Vincent Kruse Jr.

August 20, 1964 - November 18, 2018

VINCENT KRUSE JR.

Vincent Kruse Jr., age 54, died on Sunday, 18 November 2018 at Wilson Hospital in Johnson City, NY. He was born in Williamsburg, Brooklyn, on 20 August 1964 to Vincent and Sadie Martha Kruse and last resided in Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania.

He attended Saint Cecilia's parochial school in Greenpoint, Brooklyn; Queens Vocational High School in Long Island City, Queens and completed courses at LaGuardia Community College. He then went on to complete an automotive technology program at Apex Technical school in New York City.

He worked in the automotive trades for a number of years and for a period as a mortgage loan officer. Later in life he worked as a supervisor for a fuel distribution company that serviced the railroad industry.

Vincent was, above all, a dedicated husband and father. Proud of his children, their talents and accomplishments, he would promote to any receptive ear. He was good natured and caring, diligent and responsible, and possessed a great sense of humor. He held a special place in his heart for his wife, Donna, and cherished their time together.

He is survived by his wife, Donna (Jenney) Kruse; his daughters, Danielle and Dana; his son, Vincent, III; his mother, Sadie Martha Kruse; his siblings, John Thomas Kruse, Denise Ann LaGiglia, and Donna Marfoggia; and his many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at the Edward Lynch Funeral Home at 43 07

Queens Blvd, Sunnyside, NY 11104 on Friday, 23 November 2018 from 1-5 p.m.
